It is important we are able to interpret other people's emotions. We need to focus on what they are saying and what their facial expression and body language is telling us. Next, we must figure out how best to support these emotions. Perhaps our friend needs a supportive look, or a comment from us to know everything will be okay.

What was Adam's problem?

How was Adam feeling?

Was Kathleen supportive when she saw Adam's face?

What should Kathleen have done and/or said to Adam instead?
