Sarcasm can be seen in everyday conversation. Sometimes, sarcasm is meant to be funny and sometimes it can be viewed as a form of bullying. If we don't understand when someone is being sarcastic it can lead to us getting in trouble or finding ourselves in a dangerous situation. It is important we are able to identify when someone is being serious versus sarcastic.

Al's two friends were being sarcastic when they told him to cut the cake. Is there anyway Al could have known they were being sarcastic?

What are two ways Al could have responded to his friends if he realized they were being sarcastic?

1.

How do you think Al feels?

2.
